4. General principles and procedure of the Fund management

The open-end mutual fund ABLV European Corporate EUR Bond Fund is aimed at achieving long-term capital growth. To achieve this objective, the Fund's assets are invested in debt securities issued or guaranteed by commercial companies or credit institutions registered in the European countries.

The Fund's investment portfolio is diversified among investments in debt securities of various issuers, valid in different countries and economic sectors, thus ensuring higher investment safety and protection against fluctuations of the portfolio assets value and the risk of default on obligations.

The Fund's base currency is EUR (hereinafter — the base currency).

The Fund makes investments in the base currency, except cases when rules of the regulated markets stipulate conclusion of transactions in derivative financial instruments in another currency (i.e., where derivative financial instruments needed for hedging are available in some particular currency only) or when some events related to financial instruments (e.g., changes in face value of stocks performed by the issuer, splitting of securities, consolidation or splitting of securities issues, debt restructuring, etc.), which the Company was unable to anticipate at the moment of investing, lead to transferable securities or money market instruments in other currency being included in the Fund's investment portfolio. Such investments of the Fund may be associated with currency risk.

The investment objects are chosen in accordance with the principles of the Fund's investment policy and investment restrictions set forth in the Fund Prospectus (hereinafter — the Prospectus) and following the procedure stipulated in the Fund Management Regulations (hereinafter referred to as the Regulations).

According to the Republic of Latvia "Law on Investment Management Companies" (hereinafter referred to as the Law), the Fund is the open-end mutual fund established for the sake of collective investing of publicly raised funds in transferable securities and other liquid financial instruments, observing the risk reduction principle and the investment restrictions set forth in the Law, and the management company of which is obliged, if requested by the fund investors, to repurchase the investment certificates within one month at the latest.

The Fund's property is the joint property of the Fund investors (hereinafter — the Investors), and it shall be held, recorded and managed separately from the property of the Company, of other funds or their subfunds managed by the Company, and of the Custodian Bank.

The Fund's property may not be included in the property of the Company or the Custodian Bank as a debtor, in case the Company or the Custodian Bank is declared insolvent or is liquidated.

The Fund is not a legal entity.

The Fund operates in accordance with the Law and the Council Directive of 20 December 1985 on the coordination of laws, regulations and administrative provisions relating to undertakings for collective investment in transferable securities (UCITS) 85/611/EEC.

The Company on its own behalf and at the expense of the Investors, solely pursuing the interests of the Investors, deals with the Fund's property and ensuing rights pursuant to the Law, other legal acts of the Republic of Latvia, the Company's Articles of Association, the Prospectus and the Regulations.

When acting under the Fund management, also when exercising voting rights attached to shares of capital included in the Fund's property, the Company does not need consent of the Investors.

The Company shall maintain the Fund accounting and prepare the Fund's annual and six-month reports. The Company may delegate maintenance of the Fund accounting to an authorized person, and the Company shall be liable for actions of such person. The Fund accounting shall be maintained separately from accounting of property of the Company and other funds managed by the Company.

5. Investment restrictions

- 5.1. The Fund may invest in transferable securities and money market instruments that meet at least one of the following criteria:
- 1) those are traded on a member state's regulated market or other trading venue (regulated market, multilateral trading facility, or systematic internalizer operating in this status accordingly, or, on respective instances, a facility having functions similar to those of a regulated market or a multilateral trading facility);

 - a) it is registered in the Organization for Economic Co-operation and Development member state that is included in the Group of Ten;
 - b) Investment grade rating is assigned to it;
 - c) according to comprehensive analysis of the legal regulation of the issuer's operations, the requirements regulating operations of the same are at least as strict as those set in the European Union;
 - 5) those are issued by a commercial company the capital and reserves of which amount to EUR 10 million or more, and which prepares and publishes audited annual report in accordance with requirements for preparing and publishing annual reports that are equal to those set in the European Union. Such commercial company is included in a group in which one or more commercial companies the stocks of which are traded on a regulated market are included, and it is supposed for raising funds for the group, or such commercial company is a special-purpose entity specializing in debt securitization and having arrangement on liquidity provision made with a bank that complies with requirements to credit institutions stated in subclause 4 of clause 5.2 above. Investor protection equal to that mentioned in subclauses 1, 2, 3, and 4 of clause 5.2 above shall be applicable to investments in such money market instruments.
- 5.3. The Fund may invest in transferable securities and money market instruments apart from those described in clauses 5.1 and 5.2 above, provided the investment amount does not exceed 10 percent of the Fund's assets.
- 5.4. The Fund's assets may be invested in investment certificates (shares) of open-end funds or similar collective investment undertakings registered in a member state, provided the operations of those are regulated in a way equal to that required by the Law.
- 5.5. The Fund's assets may be invested in investment certificates (shares) of open-end funds or similar collective investment undertakings registered in countries apart from those mentioned in clause 5.4 above, provided the open-end funds or similar collective investment undertakings meet the following requirements:

- 1) those are registered in a foreign state in which legal regulation ensures supervision of such undertakings that is equal to the supervision stated in the Law, and the supervisory institutions of the respective foreign state cooperate with the FCMC;
 - 2) the requirements regulating their operations, including investor protection, investment and transaction restrictions, are equal to the Law provisions on operations of open-end mutual funds;
 - 3) those prepare and publish six-month and annual reports to ensure the possibility to assess their assets, liabilities, income, and performance over the reporting period.
- 5.6. The Fund's assets may be invested in investment certificates (shares) of open-end funds and collective investment undertakings mentioned in clauses 5.4 and 5.5 above, provided the prospectus, management regulations, or similar document of the open-end fund or collective investment undertaking (the investment certificates (shares) of which are supposed to be purchased) stipulates that investments in other funds or collective investment undertakings may not exceed 10 percent of the fund's or collective investment undertaking's assets.
- 5.7. The Fund's investments in investment certificates of one open-end mutual fund may not exceed 10 percent of the Fund's assets. The Fund's total investments in investment certificates of mutual funds may not exceed 10 percent of the Fund's assets.
- 5.8. The Fund's investments, except the Fund's investments mentioned in clauses 5.11 and 5.12 below, in transferable securities, ETF securities or money market instruments of one issuer may not exceed 5 percent of the Fund's assets. The said restriction may be increased to 10 percent of the Fund's assets, but this being the case the total amount of investments above five percent may not exceed 40 percent of the Fund's assets.
- 5.9. The Fund's assets may be invested in derivative financial instruments that are traded on markets mentioned in subclauses 1 and 2 of clause 5.1 above, provided their underlying asset is a financial instrument, financial index, interest rate, currency rate or currency in which the Fund's assets are invested or are supposed to be invested as mentioned in the Prospectus.
- 5.10. The overall risks arising out of transactions in derivative financial instruments, including derivative financial instruments embedded in transferable securities or money market instruments, may not exceed the Fund's value.
- 5.11. The Fund's investments in transferable securities or money market instruments of one issuer may be increased to 35 percent of the Fund's assets, provided the transferable securities or money market instruments are issued or guaranteed by:
- 1) a member state or a member state's municipality;
 - 2) a member state of the OECD;
 - 3) an international institution, where one or more member states are members of the same.
- 5.12. The Fund's investments in transferable securities of one issuer may be increased up to 25 percent of the Fund's assets, provided those are debt securities issued by a credit institution registered in a member state and according to obligations secured by those the received funds are supposed to be invested in items that completely ensure performance of obligations secured by those throughout the whole period of debt securities circulation, those obligations having priority in case of insolvency of the issuer of those securities.
- 5.13. If value of the Fund's investments in debt securities of one issuer mentioned in clause 5.12 above exceeds 5 percent of the Fund's assets, the total value of the Fund's investments above 5 percent may not exceed 80 percent of the Fund's assets.
- 5.14. The Subfund's deposits with credit institutions may be made for a term up to 12 months. The Fund's deposits with one credit institution may not exceed 20 percent of the Fund's assets. The said restriction shall be not applicable to demand claims to the Custodian Bank.
- 5.15. When applying investment restrictions set forth in this clause, the commercial companies included in one group shall be deemed the same person.
- 5.16. The investment restrictions specifically set forth in clauses 5.8, 5.11, 5.12, 5.13, and 5.14 above may not be combined, and therefore the total Fund's investments in transferable securities and money market instruments, as well as the Fund's investments the issuer, guarantor or investment attractor of which is the same person, may not exceed 35 percent of the Fund's assets.
- 5.17. The Fund's investments in specific investment objects may not exceed the following indicators:
- 1) 10 percent of the total amount of debt securities issued by one issuer;
 - 2) 10 percent of the total value of money market instruments issued by one issuer;
 - 3) 25 percent of the number of investment certificates (shares) of one open-end fund or collective investment undertaking.
- 5.18. Neither total investments of all funds managed by the company, nor investments of each fund separately may directly or indirectly exceed 10 percent of any of the following indicators:

- 1) share capital of one issuer;
- 2) total voting rights of one issuer.

5.19. The Fund's assets may not be used for granting loans and investing in real estate, as well as the Fund's assets may not be invested in precious metals and derivative financial instruments the underlying assets of which are precious metals or commodities.

6. Procedure of taking investment decisions

The Fund manager appointed by the Company's Board shall manage the Fund's property and perform functions of the Fund manager complying with the decisions of the Investment Strategy Committee and the limits set, provisions of the Prospectus, the Fund's investment policy and procedure, as stated in the Republic of Latvia effective legal acts and these Regulations.

The Investment Strategy Committee is a permanent institution that determines the Fund management strategy and controls compliance with the set strategy.

The Investment Strategy Committee is responsible for compliance with the Fund's investment policy.

Taking into consideration long-term and medium-term trends of the financial markets, macroeconomic forecasts, fundamental market assessment, interest rates' forecast and other factors, the Investment Strategy Committee determines the list of types of financial instruments and investment countries in which the Fund's assets are planned to be invested, as well as the Fund's investment limits and submits those to the Fund manager.

The Investment Strategy Committee reviews issues regarding the Fund's investment strategy and limits and takes decisions on those at the meetings of the Investment Strategy Committee, which are convened at least once per month. The Investment Strategy Committee may take decisions provided at least 5 members of the same take part in the meeting of the Investment Strategy Committee. The decision of the Investment Strategy Committee shall be effective if majority has voted for it.

A member of the Investment Strategy Committee shall clearly express his or her opinion, voting "for" or "against".

The decisions of the Investment Strategy Committee are made in writing and signed by the chairman of the meeting and two members of the Investment Strategy Committee.

The other members of the Committee may submit their objections on the text of the minutes to the Chairman of the Committee within 2 working days after the minutes are published.

The Fund manager shall take tactic decisions on investment management based on current market short-term trends, instrument liquidity, technical analysis, and other factors. The Fund manager shall determine the selection of financial instruments, decide on substituting some financial instruments with other ones within the frame of approved strategy, choose the moment of purchase/sale, and perform other actions necessary for the sake of increasing the investment return, based on the manager's individual decision and complying with the set limits.

Having assessed the situation and trends in the financial instruments market, the Fund manager shall take a decision on using derivative financial instruments for hedging risks of a particular asset or the whole Fund's portfolio.

When making any transactions involving the Fund's property, there should be an order of the Fund manager accepted by the Custodian Bank's authorized person. If the order contradicts the Law, the FCMC regulations, the Prospectus, Regulations, or agreement with the Custodian Bank, the Custodian Bank shall not execute the order.

During the Fund manager being ill or absent, the duties of the Fund manager shall be performed and the Fund's property shall be managed by the Company's Chairman of the Board or the Company's officer competent in investment matters and appointed by the Company's Chairman of the Board.

7. Procedure of providing services to the Investors

7.1. Procedure of providing the Prospectus and basic information for Investors

The Investment Certificates are divisible. The quantity of the Investment certificates shall be stated to 4 (four) decimal places.

There is no fee charged for repurchase of the Investment Certificates.

The Company shall register the Applications for Repurchase of the Investment Certificates in a separate register in the order of their receipt.

The Application for Repurchase of the Investment Certificates may be submitted to the Company or the Distributor personally, by fax, or via the Internetbank.

The Application for Repurchase of the Investment Certificates shall be deemed submitted and registered after the same is signed by representative of the Company or the Distributor.

Where the Application for Repurchase of the Investment Certificates is submitted personally, the Company's or the Distributor's authorized representative shall sign the same and give one copy of the application to the Investor.

The Company or the Distributor shall not be liable for losses of the Investor incurred due to some unauthorized person using the name and account numbers of the Investor for malicious purposes. The Company may accept the Application for Repurchase of the Investment Certificates by fax, only provided the customer identification is performed.

The Company shall be obliged to execute only Applications for Repurchase of the Investment Certificates that are duly completed. The Investor shall be responsible for the information stated in the application being true and complete.

After the Investment Certificates are credited to the Custodian Bank's issue account, the Company shall immediately cancel those and shall credit the amount of funds corresponding to the quantity of the Investment Certificates being repurchased in the base currency to the respective cash account within 5 (five) working days at the latest, unless the exceptional instance of suspending repurchase of the Investment Certificates, as set forth in the Prospectus, is present.

Where the Investor or Investors within 3 (three) working days submit the Applications for Repurchase of the Investment Certificates the total amount of which exceeds 10% of the Fund's value and execution of which might substantially affect interests of the other Investors, the term of performing settlements under repurchase may be extended to 7 (seven) working days.

The repurchase price of the Investment Certificates shall be paid in the base currency.

All expenses incurred by the Investor under repurchase of the Investment Certificates (bank charges for transactions in financial instruments / cash / current accounts, etc.) shall be covered by the Investor.

The Application for Repurchase of the Investment Certificates shall become void if the Investor defaults on the Investor's obligations under this Application and the Prospectus.

7.5. Reacceptance of the Investment Certificates

If information provided in the Prospectus and the enclosed documents that is substantial for evaluation of the Investment Certificates is incorrect or incomplete through the Company's fault, the Investor shall be entitled to request that the Company reaccepts the Investor's Investment Certificates and reimburses the Investor for all resulting losses. Such claim may be filed within 6 (six) months from the day when the Investor finds out that the information is incorrect or incomplete, however within 3 (three) years from the day when the Investment Certificate is purchased at the latest.

In order to request reacceptance of the Investment Certificates, the Investor shall submit a free-form Application for Reacceptance of the Investment Certificates to the Company.

The Company's Board shall review the Application for Reacceptance of the Investment Certificates submitted by the Investor and the enclosed documents within 10 (ten) days after the day of submitting the application and shall take the decision on the loss compensation and the amount of the same, based on sufficiency of the reasons for reacceptance request.

The Company shall transfer funds to the respective cash account with the Custodian Bank within 5 (five) working days after the decision is taken.

The Company's decision shall be sent to the Investor within 2 (two) working days after the decision is taken.

7.6. Value of the Fund

The Fund's value is equal to the difference between value of the Fund's assets and the Fund's liabilities. Value of the Fund's share is equal to value of the Fund divided by the quantity of the Investment Certificates issued and not repurchased.

The Fund accounting shall be maintained in accordance with the Law, the FCMC Regulations on the Preparation of Annual Reports of Investment Funds and the Regulations on the Preparation of Reports of Investment Funds, as well as other legal acts of the Republic of Latvia. For evaluation of the financial report items, the International Accounting Standards published by the International Accounting Standards Board shall be applied.

The Fund's assets shall be evaluated in accordance with the following accounting principles:

- 1) it is assumed that the Fund will be managed on a going concern basis;
- 2) the evaluation methods used are the same as those in the previous reporting year;
- 3) the evaluation is performed applying due caution:
 - only revenues received before the day of preparing the financial report are included in the Fund's financial report,
 - all possible expenses are taken into account regardless time of their origination (i.e., those related to the reporting year and the previous periods);
- 4) the revenues and expenses related to the reporting year are taken into account regardless the payment date and the date of invoice receipt or sending;
- 5) all items having substantial influence on evaluation and decision taking by users of the Fund's financial report are stated;
- 6) assets and liabilities items and their components shall be evaluated separately;
- 7) all transactions are recorded and presented in the financial report considering their economic nature and essence, but not legal form.

After recognition, the Fund manager shall evaluate financial assets and liabilities as follows:

- the financial assets held for trading shall be stated at their fair value, i.e., the amount at which the financial asset can be exchanged by performing a transaction between well-informed, interested, and financially independent persons;
- the financial assets held to maturity shall be stated at their amortized acquisition cost.

The value of the Fund and the value of the Fund's share is determined every working day according to the previous working day's closing prices.

7.7. Calculation of the Investment Certificate sale price

Issue price of the Fund's Investment Certificate is EUR 10.

The Investment Certificate sale price is variable, and it is determined every working day together with the value of the Fund's share.

The Investment Certificate sale price is constituted by value of the Fund's share and the amount of the issue fee.

The maximum amount of sale fee is set to be 1.50% of the value of the Fund's share. The decision on the amount of the sale fee shall be taken by the Company.

7.8. Calculation of the Investment Certificate repurchase price

The Investment Certificate repurchase price shall be equal to the value of the Fund's share calculated on the working day following the day on which the Company receives and accepts the Application for Repurchase of the Investment Certificates, but published on the second working day after receiving the Application for Repurchase of the Investment Certificates.

Information about the Investment Certificate repurchase price shall be set together with determining the value of the Fund's share and it may be found by calling the Company's telephone numbers mentioned in clause 7.3 or appearing in person at the Company's office or Distributors, as well as on the Company's website at www.ablv.com. This information is available through the intermediary of the Custodian Bank as well.

No fee shall be charged under the repurchase transactions.

7.9. Calculation of income

The income gained from the transactions in the Fund's property is invested in the Fund.

The income of the Investor can be determined based on changes in the value of the Fund's share. The Investor can receive the Investor's income in monetary form only by requesting repurchase of the Investment Certificates to be performed by the Company.

8. The Fund's liquidation procedure

The Fund's liquidation shall be performed in accordance with the Law.

The Fund's liquidation shall be performed by liquidator. The Company, the Custodian Bank, or the person appointed by the FCMC may be the liquidator.

The Company shall perform the Fund's liquidation if:

- on the day following termination of the agreement with the Custodian Bank there is no new agreement with the Custodian Bank made effective;
- during a year after establishment of the Fund, there are no Investment Certificates put into circulation;
- the Company takes a decision on the Fund's liquidation;
- the FCMC has taken decision on initiation of the Fund's liquidation.

The liquidator shall immediately inform the FCMC about initiating the Fund's liquidation and shall publish a respective notification in gazette Latvijas Vēstnesis.

If the Company or the Custodian Bank does not initiate the Fund's liquidation within a month after the day on which such liquidation should have been initiated, the FCMC shall be entitled to appoint the Fund liquidator. Such liquidator of the Fund shall have all rights that the Company would have if the liquidation was performed by the latter. The liquidator shall be entitled to perform actions related to liquidation of the Fund only.

During the liquidation of the Fund, the Investment Certificates may not be issued or repurchased, and income of the Fund may not be distributed between the Investors as set forth in the Prospectus.

The liquidator shall pursue the interests of the Investors and creditors. The liquidator shall be fully liable to the Investors and third parties with regard to the losses caused during the liquidation if the liquidator violates the Law or these Regulations intentionally or due to negligence, or if the liquidator's duties are performed carelessly.

After initiating the Fund's liquidation, the liquidator shall arrange and perform sale of the Fund's property, except monetary funds included in the Fund. The Custodian Bank or the liquidator shall distribute the income gained from selling the property of the liquidated Fund and the monetary funds available in the Fund (liquidation revenues) in the following order:

- secured creditor claims;
- creditor claims filed within the period set in the notification;
- creditor claims filed after expiry of the period set in the notification, but before distribution of the liquidation revenues.

If the liquidation revenues are not sufficient for satisfying all abovementioned claims, the Company's funds and property shall be applied towards satisfaction of the claims that are not satisfied, except claims that originated after termination of the Company's management rights. The remaining liquidation revenues shall be distributed between the Investors in proportion to the quantity of their Investment Certificates.

All payments to the creditors and the Investors shall be made in monetary form.

After liquidation of the Fund is completed, the Company shall make respective amendments to the Regulations and the Prospectus.

9. The procedure for transferring the Fund management rights and the Fund's property to the Custodian Bank or other persons

The Company's rights to manage the Fund shall be terminated upon the following:

- the Fund management rights are transferred to other company;
- the licence is cancelled;
- the Fund's liquidation is completed where the same is performed by the Company;
- the FCMC appoints the Fund liquidator in accordance with the Law.

9.1. Transferring of the Fund management rights and the Fund's property to the Custodian Bank

If the Company's rights to manage the Fund are terminated, the rights to manage the Fund shall be transferred to the Custodian Bank, except where the Company's rights to manage the Fund are transferred to other company. After the Fund management rights are transferred to the Custodian Bank, the latter shall have all rights of the Company, except the right to issue the Investment Certificates and to repurchase the certificates.

Within 3 (three) months after the day of transferring the Fund management rights, the Custodian Bank shall transfer the Fund management rights to other investment company. The FCMC may extend this period to six months after the day of transferring the management rights. The Fund management rights may be transferred to other company only given permission of the FCMC.

If the Custodian Bank does not transfer the Fund management rights to other investment company within the period stated above, the Custodian Bank shall perform liquidation of the Fund.

9.2. Transferring of the Fund management rights and the Fund's property to other persons

The Company may transfer the Fund management rights to other investment company pursuant to an agreement.

The FCMC permission is required to transfer the Fund management rights. After receiving the FCMC permission, the Company shall submit a notification on transferring the Fund management rights to other company to be published in gazette Latvijas Vēstnesis and one of daily newspapers, indicating the company's name, registration number, legal address, and the place of the board location.

The agreement on transferring the Fund management rights to other company shall become effective not earlier than in one month after the notification on transferring the Fund management rights to other company is published in gazette Latvijas Vēstnesis. Upon the agreement becomes effective, all rights and obligations related to the Fund shall be transferred to the new company.

10. The procedure for the Company's and the Custodian Bank's cooperation under the Fund management

The Company shall perform transactions in the Fund's property through the intermediary of the Custodian Bank. To ensure management of the Fund's property, the Company shall enter into agreement with the Custodian Bank, under which the Custodian Bank shall keep the Fund's property, perform transactions in the Fund's property, and maintain the Fund's accounts, as well as perform other actions pursuant to the Law, agreement made with the Custodian Bank, and the Company's orders.

When performing duties set forth in the Law, the Custodian Bank shall act independently from the Company and solely pursuing the interests of the Investors, unless the same contradicts the Republic of Latvia legal acts, the FCMC regulations, the Prospectus, and these Regulations.

The Custodian Bank may make payments from the Fund's account only following the Company's orders, as well as the Custodian Bank shall execute other orders of the Company, unless those contradict the Republic of Latvia legal acts, the Prospectus, these Regulations, and the agreement with the Custodian Bank.

11. Payments within the competence of the Fund

11.1. Payments to the Company, Custodian Bank, Auditor, third parties

The Company shall make the following payments out of the Fund's property:

- 1) remuneration to the Company;
- 2) remuneration to the Custodian Bank;

- 3) remuneration to the Auditor;
- 4) other payments.

The Company shall receive remuneration for managing the Fund, which may not exceed 1.75% of the Fund's average value per annum, and the Investment Certificates sale fee.

The Company's remuneration for managing the Fund shall be calculated and accrued each calendar day and accrued within a month. The remuneration shall be paid out of the Fund's property in accordance with provisions of the Prospectus.

Current amount of the remuneration to the Company is stated on the Company's website at www.ablv.com, in the section 'ABLV Mutual Funds'.

The sale fee shall be determined in accordance with the Prospectus, and the remuneration to the Distributors shall be paid out of the same. Should the amount of remuneration payable to the Company exceed the amount of remuneration for managing the Fund stated in this clause above, the difference shall be covered by the Company at its own expense.

The Custodian Bank shall receive remuneration for keeping the Fund's property and performing other duties of the Custodian Bank, and such remuneration may not exceed 0.20% of the Fund's average value per annum. The remuneration to the Custodian Bank shall be calculated and accrued each calendar day based on the Fund's value determined in accordance with the procedure set forth in the Prospectus.

The remuneration to the Custodian Bank shall be paid out of the Fund's property following the Company's order pursuant to the agreement between the Custodian Bank and the Company.

The remuneration to the Auditor shall be paid out of the Fund's property, and it may not exceed 0.125% of the Fund's average value per annum. The remuneration shall be calculated and paid in accordance with provisions of the Prospectus.

Payments to third parties shall be made in accordance with supporting documents or actual expenses.

Total annual remuneration paid for managing the Fund may not exceed 3.0% of the Fund's average value per annum, excluding other payments.

11.2. Other payments

Other expenses shall be covered out of the Fund's property, provided those are evidenced by external supporting documents, and also where those should be covered pursuant to the LR legal acts that regulate operations of the investment management companies and mutual funds, and the accounting maintenance.

Such payments as fees for performing transactions, brokerage fees, payment of interest under loans, etc., shall be included in other payments.

12. Procedure of making public statements and disclosing publicly available information

The Investors may freely get acquainted with the Regulations, the Prospectus, basic information for Investors, the Fund's reports, and other publicly available information at the Company's office during the Company's working hours or on the Company's website at www.ablv.com.

The Prospectus, basic information for Investors, the Regulations, as well as amendments to the Prospectus, the Regulations, the Fund's reports, the Investment Certificates sale and repurchase prices, information about the Company's officials, location of the Company's office and the Company's working hours, all statements, and new information concerning the Investors shall be provided by the Company on the Company's website at www.ablv.com.

The Company shall inform the investors about transferring the Fund management rights to other investment management company, as well as about the Fund management rights being transferred to the Custodian Bank, by publishing a notice in gazette Latvijas Vēstnesis and at least one of daily newspapers, as well as on the Company's website at www.ablv.com.

The Company shall inform the Investors about liquidation of the Fund and other events set forth in the Law by publishing a notice in gazette Latvijas Vēstnesis and on the Company's website at www.ablv.com.

13. Procedure of amending the Fund Management Regulations

The decision about approving amendments to the Regulations shall be taken by the Company's Council.

If amendments are made to the Regulations, the Company shall submit an application for registering amendments to the Regulations to the FCMC. The documents set forth by the Law shall be enclosed with the application.

The amendments to the Regulations shall become effective not earlier than in 10 (ten) days after being registered with the FCMC or within other term set by the FCMC, which may not exceed 3 (three) months after the day of registering the amendments, taking into consideration the nature of the amendments to the Regulations and the interests of the Investors.
